

Dear John Smith,

This is a notice that you have not succeeded in meeting your sales goals this month. Continuation of a failure to perform adequately will result in a formal warning.

We take the success of our employees very seriously. Therefore, we will be requiring you to take additional training before your next assignment.

Thank you,
Louis